

Some mathematicians who graduated from the Chair of Probability Theory and Mathematical Statistics
at St.Petersburg State University

This list contains the names of former UNDERGRADUTE STUDENTS of the Chair of Probability Theory and Mathematical Statistics who had later received the degree of Doctor of Science (the second and supreme scientific degree in former Soviet Union and current Russia). Those numerous Doctors of Science who were only Ph.D.-students at the Chair are not YET included.
